Lighthouse, near Aberdeen, Scotland, between the British steamer Coldyde and the Grangoe. The Coldyde sank and eleven of her crew were drowned.

ticipation in the bomb outrage, June 7 last, at the feast of Corpus Christi, were shot in Barcelona. They shouted "Long live anarchy," just before the order to fire was given.

A ponderous rock, weighing ten tons, while being swung from a flat car, crashed through the sides of two cars on the westbound Chicago & Alton passenger train near Chicago, wrecking the cars and injuring a number of people.

Another citizenship question has arisen between this government and Germany. An American citizen named Mayer has been impressed into military service by the German government.
The state department has requested his release.

Eight-year-old Emelia Kiesel, who drank some lemonade which was kept in a tin bucket over night, died at Danville, Cal., from the effects of the poison. Eighteen scholars who drank of the stuff are sick. The ladies of the Rebekah lodge used a part of the lemonade at a social. The remainder was presented to the school children next day.

Consul-General McIvor, at Kanagawa, Japan, reports to the state department that, according to current reports, the Japanese government is about to send a commission to Washington for the purpose of influencing a reduction of the increased import duties, which, according to the American papers, it is proposed to levy on silk. The imperial diet has passed a bill allowing a bonus to exporters of raw silk.

There will be an encampment of the Oregon National Guard this year. It will be the latter part of June or first of July. It will continue from six to ten days. An effort is being made by the agricultural board at Salem to have the encampment postponed until September 30, and to have it then held on the state fair grounds, in conjunction with the fair. The selection of a place has been left to General Beebe.

The Greek cabinet ministers who have returned from the Greek frontier seem to be in favor of a continuance of the war. Altogether, fourteen officers have been recalled from Crete to be sent to Thessaly, and this is also proof of the intention of the new cabinet to continue the war. The movement was actuated by necessity. All the best officers are being sent to the front, nor is there any intention yet displayed to evacuate Crete.

has been definitely decided that National Committeeman J. E. Boyd, of North Carolina, will be appointed solicitor of pointed United States ambassador to turers, of San Francisco, for $100,000 on account of negligence.

President McKinley has sent to congress a message concerning the lynching August 9, 1896. He recommends an of the persons without admitting the premises.

In the German reichstag Count von Kantitz, the agrarian leader, interpellated the government on the subject of the proposed United States tariff. He asked if the government wished to continue the agreement of 1891, and said the Dingley bill implied less the increase of American customs revenue than the successful expulsion of European imports from American markets.

THE ORDER REVOKED.

Senate Acts on Cleveland's Forestry Proclamation.

Washington, May 8.—The senate today agreed to an amendment to the civil-service bill revoking the order of President Cleveland made on February 22 last, establishing forest reservations aggregating 17,000,000 acres. The debate brought out much criticism of Mr.
Cleveland's order. Senators Pettigrew, Wilson, Turner, Rawlins and White speaking against it.

Gray of Delaware defended the conscience of the president, pointing out that it was the result of an inquiry authorized by congress and conducted by the National Academy of Sciences.

Allison endeavored to have the amendment restricted so as to leave the question of revocation to the president, but he was defeated on an aye and no vote, 14 to 32. Gorman made a point of order against the amendment, but this being submitted to the senate, was defeated, 23 to 25. The amendment was then agreed to without division.

Another amendment agreed to provides for a continuance of the investigation of the condition of the fur seals

New Way to Get Jobs.

Denver, May 10.—A special to the Republican from Cheyenne, Wyo., says: An attempt was made this morning by unknown persons to wreck the incoming Cheyenne & Northern passenger train by misplacing a switch in the yards at the northern entrance to the city. Owing to the fact that the train was running slowly, no damage was done derailing the locomotive. The authorities discovered tonight that the parties who attempted to wreck the train are several Union Pacific brakemen, one of whom made a full confession of the affair to City Attorney Breckons. The switch was turned with the expectation that the Cheyenne & Northern employees would be blamed for it and discharged, and extra Union Pacific men would be given work in their places. Warrants were issued tonight for two of the brakemen implicated, and they will be arrested tomorrow.

Cuban Sympathizers Arrested.

City of Mexico, May 10.—A sensational arrest was made today of the entire editorial staff of the paper called El Continente Americano, which is the organ of the Mexican sympathizers with the Cuban insurgents, at the instigation of the Duke of Arcos, the Spanish minister, who complains that the paper has insulted a friendly nation. The editors are young Mexican students, and popular sympathy is with them. The arrest is causing much comment, but it could not be helped, as the Spanish minister presented a formal complaint, and under the law, action had to be taken. The outcome is watched with great interest.
The insurgents have engaged the best legal talent to defend the young editors.

The Treasurer Drowned Himself.

New Bedford, Mass., May 10.—William D. Howland, treasurer of the Howland mills, and the New Bedford Manufacturing Company, was found this morning in the dock at the foot of North street. The corporations with which Howland is connected are in the hands of receivers as the result of the discovery of an unsuspected financial entanglement recently by stockholders.

Had Trouble With the Machinery.

Vancouver, B. C., May 10.—A young man named Harvey Kinsman committed suicide by shooting this afternoon, at Ladner's landing on the Fraser river, twelve miles from New Westminster. He was 24 years of age, and was employed at the Wellington farm creamery. The only reason for the deed, as far as known, is that he had some trouble with the machinery at the creamery.

Oregon to Come Out of Dock.

Seattle, Wash., May 10.—The battleship Oregon will come out of the Port Orchard dock tonight or tomorrow night. It will probably be two months before the repairs can be made to the ship, and the officers determined it would be better for the Oregon to be in water in the meantime, owing to the strain the ship would be subjected to during so long a stay in the dock.

Takes Otis' Command.

Washington, May 10.—Orders have been issued by the war department, assigning General Shafter to the command of the department of the Columbia, headquarters at Vancouver bar-acks, transferring General Otis to the command of the department of Colorado, with headquarters at Denver. Colonel Merriam, now at Denver, will assume command upon General Wheat-on's retirement until Otis' arrival.
Colonel Anderson, at Vancouver bar-acks, will be in command until Shafter's arrival.

GREEK ARMY IS DEFEATED

Turks Force Them to Re- treat From Pharsala.

BOTH SIDES LOSE HEAVILY

The Greeks Transfer Their Supplies to Domokos—Volo Is Evacuated—Edhem Pasha Still Pushing South.

Larissa, May 10.—A dispatch from Pharsala, dated 11 A. M. today, describes the battle there, which begun yesterday morning. A Turkish corps appeared on the summit of Mount Tekke yesterday morning. Securing a formidable entrenched position on the hillside, they attacked the Fourth regiment of Evzones about noon. The latter made a strong resistance, but were finally compelled to slowly fall back.
The Turks then cannonaded and destroyed the village of Ordskiniwof, which is about two hours' march north of Pharsala. The crown prince having ordered the army to draw up in line of battle, the Greeks advanced about 2 P. M.

The Turks, numbering 30,000, immediately descended the slopes of Mount Tekke and planted batteries, which began to bombard the regiments. Owing to superiority of weight, the Turkish cannon inflicted heavy losses upon the Greeks, and especially near the station.
The Turks continued to advance until they came into close quarters, and then the crown prince decided to retire to more commanding positions.

All the ammunition and supplies have been transported to Domokos, on the heights of which the Greek batteries were prepared for action.

The Turks have burned the village of Tatia, and have massacred a priest and the entire family in the village of Dioskani.

Steady Advance of the Turks.

Lodon, May 10.—The Daily Mail's correspondent with the Turkish forces at Pharsala, telegraphing yesterday morning, says:

Yesterday's battle was the most decisive of the entire war. It was not intended at the beginning that the fight should be a regular pitched engagement, but on the arrival of Edhem Pasha at the outposts a furious firing began. The weather was cool and the sky somewhat cloudy after a thunder storm. The village of Pharsala could be seen, huddled, as it were, under a line of low, peaked hills. Higher and roundabout were black hills rising behind the others, while between us and the village ran the small stream known to the ancients as the Raupes, crossed by a bridge at the railway.

Between the stream and the village were the Greeks, in an excellent position, well defended by earthworks.
Their advance line consisted of two bridges, and their reserve of two half-brigades, altogether about 20,000 men.
Against them were 50,000 Turks.

The artillery began the engagement, the Greek practice being much better than usual, but after two hours they began to retire across the river. This was a great mistake, as they were thus inclosed between the river and the mountains, with no room to deploy.

The sight was superb. In many cases the Greeks fought with the courage of despair. The great black masses forming the rear guards to hold the bridges covered the whole rich green plain. The endurance and dash of the Turks was magnificent, too. I reached the battlefield with a regiment whose men immediately began to run forward, dancing under fire, and shouting like children when they saw the enemy. The Greeks repulsed them vigorously and followed up the repulse.

The Turks had formed in a semi-circle of thundering batteries and crackling battalions. The division on the extreme right tried to cut off the retreat to Domokos, while the remainder of the force flung itself upon Pharsala.

The battle was but little like the battles described in books. There was no firing of volleys, no bayonet assaults, no cheering, no rush—only a steady, leisurely advance into the open in perfect order. There was some individual firing, and the soldiers shouted, "Allah!
Allah!" until the constant repetition swelled into one heavy, monotonous shout. I saw men suddenly fling up their hands and fall face downward, but the Greek fire in the main was ineffective.

Before 5 o'clock, the last village north of the river had been taken. Then the village of Vasil and the entrenchments near the river were stormed, with considerable loss to the Turks, and the battle ceased at nightfall, the flanking division having established itself behind the Greeks and out off the best line of retreat to Athens.

Edhem Pasha Announces It.

Constantinople, May 10.—The ministry of war has received the following dispatch from Edhem Pasha, the Turkish commander in Thessaly, dated yesterday evening:

"The Turks today won a great victory. Turkish shells are commencing to fall near Pharsala. Details will be forwarded later. Sabah says a division of Turkish troops commanded by Haki Pasha carried the first line of Greek defenses at Velesino and the attack is proceeding against the other lines."

The Baker City Democrat says that it is reported on what seems to be reliable authority the O. R. & N. will soon put on a line of steamboats to ply between the Huntington bridge and Ballard landing. These boats, it is expected, will transport ores from the Seven Devils mines to the railroads.

Two men named Casey and Ott had a thrilling experience in the Umatilla river near the Mission one day last week. Ott attempted to ford the river with a four horse team, hitched to a load of hay. He miscalculated the ford and was carried down stream about 100 yards, when Mr. Casey swam out and cut the harness and rescued the horses; then swam around the rack and cut Mr. Ott loose. The wagon and load of hay were lost.

It is claimed that cows have not less
